5 should advise the Court of any concerns or accommodations that are requested for 6 parties or witnesses. During trial, if there are any matters to be discussed outside

6 with the jury instructions. Counsel shall submit a compact disc, compatible with 7 Word Perfect , containing the proposed instructions and a “clean” set of such 8 instructions, as set forth below.

9       2. The parties must submit JOINT jury instructions and a JOINT 10 proposed verdict form (if a special verdict is requested). In order to produce these 11 joint instructions, the parties shall meet and confer sufficiently in advance of the 12 required submission date, with the goal of agreeing on instructions and verdict
13 forms. Where the parties cannot agree, disputed instructions shall be submitted 14 one week before trial as follows: 1) JOINT jury instructions (those instructions
15 agreed to by all parties), and 2) DISPUTED jury instructions (those instructions 16 propounded by a party to which another party objects). On a separate page 17 following each disputed jury instruction, the party opposing the instruction shall 18 briefly state the basis for the objection, any authority in support thereof and, if 19 applicable, an alternative instruction. On the following page, the party proposing 20 the disputed instruction shall briefly state its response to the objection, and any 21 authority in support of the instruction. Each requested jury instruction shall be 22 numbered and set forth in full on a separate page, citing the authority or source of 23 the requested instruction.

24       3. Jury instructions should be modified as necessary to fit the facts of the 25 case (e.g., inserting names of defendant(s) to whom instruction applies). Where 26 language appears in brackets in the model instruction, counsel shall select the 27 appropriate text and eliminate the inapplicable bracketed text. Where no
28 applicable Ninth Circuit model instruction is available, counsel are directed to use

13 deliberations. Accordingly, on the CD submitted with jury instructions, counsel 14 shall include a “clean” set of all instructions, containing only the text of each 15 instruction, set forth in full on each page, with the caption “Court’s Instruction No.
16 _____” (eliminating titles, supporting authority, indication of party proposing, etc.)

17 6. If counsel wish to submit a written questionnaire to prospective jurors, 18 a motion shall be made in writing, with the proposed questionnaire attached, no
19 later than eight weeks before the trial date. The Court does not routinely use 20 questionnaires. Counsel should attempt to discuss this issue and reach a proposed 21 agreement before submitting the motion to the Court.

22 7. At least one week before trial, each counsel must file with the CRD
23 and serve on opposing counsel any proposed questions to be asked of prospective 24 jurors. Counsel shall also file a Joint Statement of the Case which the Court will 25 read to prospective jurors prior to the commencement of voir dire. The statement 26 shall not exceed one page.

15       5. Counsel should not talk to jurors at all, and should not talk to co-

25 provided to the Court. Counsel may consider such devices as overhead projectors, 26 jury notebooks for admitted exhibits, or enlargements of important exhibits. The 27 Court has an Elmo and other equipment available for use during trial. Call the 28 CRD if you wish to visit when the Court is not in session to practice using the 12 directly address the CRD, the court reporter or opposing counsel. All requests for 14 witness, shall be addressed to the Court

15 12. Counsel should not offer a stipulation without having conferred with 16 opposing counsel and having reached an agreement. Any stipulation of fact will 17 require defendant’s personal concurrence and shall be submitted to the Court in 18 writing for approval. A proposed stipulation should be explained to defendant in 19 advance.

20 21 13. While court is in session, counsel shall not leave counsel table to 22 confer with investigators, secretaries, or witnesses unless permission is granted in 28 called the witness shall ensure the witness is back on the stand and ready to 1 proceed when court resumes.

3 day. If no witnesses are available and there is more than a brief delay, the Court 4 may deem counsel to have rested.

5       17. The Court attempts to cooperate with expert witnesses and other 6 professionals, and will, except in extraordinary circumstances, accommodate them
7 by permitting them to be called out of sequence. Counsel are urged to anticipate 8 any such possibility and to discuss it with opposing counsel. If there is an 9 objection, counsel shall confer with the Court in advance.

10      18. Counsel must notify the CRD in advance if any witness should be 11 accommodated based on the Americans with Disabilities Act or for other reasons.
